

A Farewell and Thank You

Dear valued customers,

We hope this message finds you well. We wanted to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support and patronage over the last 50+ years. It is with mixed emotions that we announce the closure of our small business and our decision to embark on a new chapter of life – retirement. The business customer accounts, goodwill, phone numbers, website traffic, etc were all transferred to Mike Bavuso, President & CEO, of John Palmer Moving & Storage.

I have known Mike Bavuso for 25+ years and worked closely with him during my time with the Massachusetts Movers Association. I am confident in Mike's leadership of his organizations, the professional movers that he employs, and the phenomenal warehouse they operate.

This journey wouldn't have been possible without each and every one of you. Your trust in us, your loyalty, and your shared experiences have been the driving force behind our business's success. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank you for being a part of this incredible journey.

While closing this chapter is bittersweet, we are excited about the opportunities that retirement will bring. We plan to cherish the moments of relaxation, spend quality time with loved ones, and explore new interests that have long been on hold.

Our final day of operation was July 31, 2023.

As we move forward into this new phase of life, please know that the memories we've created with you will forever hold a special place in our hearts. We hope to stay connected through our fond memories and shared experiences.

If you have any questions or would like to stay in touch, please don't hesitate to reach out to us at allenyoungmovers@comcast.net. Once again, thank you for being an essential part of our journey.

Wishing you all the best and hoping our paths may cross again in the future.

With gratitude,

Martin (Marty) J. Hanley
